

Organization of the Human Body:

Largest (the whole human being)

Organism	The highest level of organization in the human body (everything put together to create the entire being).
-----------------	---

↑

Organ System	A group of organs that together perform a function that helps the body meet its needs for energy and materials.
---------------------	---

↑

Organ	A structure that is made up of two or more types of tissue that work together to carry out a function in the body.
--------------	--

↑

Tissue	A group of similar cells that work together to perform a particular function.
---------------	---

↑

Smallest

Cell	Basic unit of life; makes up all living things.
-------------	---

Homeostasis

The ability of your body to maintain internal conditions. The body's ability to regulate things within itself such as blood sugar, body temperature, your posture, etc.